

NO. 761

The constitution, in the eighth section, article

The constitution, in the eighth section, article five, provides "that no senator or delegate, during the term for which he shall have been elected, shall be appointed to any civil office, or profit under the commonwealth, which has been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased, during such term, except offices filled by election by the people." This is a limitation

Resolved, That the seat occupied by Mr. Richard B. Farr, as delegate from the county of Fairfax, be now declared vacant, and that the Speaker of the House of Delegates proceed, under the law, to have the same filled.

[Some Important Statements of Well Known People Wholly Verified.]

In order that the public may fully realize the genuineness of the statements, as well as the power and value of the article of which they speak, we publish herewith the fac simile signatures of parties whose sincerity is beyond question. The truth of these testimonials is about as certain as the facts they announce be ignored.

Alexandria, Va., August 4, 1881

I was thrown from my horse 6 or 7 years ago and suffered a severe wound of the side, which was aggravated by disordered kidneys. Eleven months ago I was attacked with pneumonia and bladder disease, deposits of brick dust and all men being discernable by the naked eye. I was confined to the house for six months, and was unable to cross the floor without assistance. My physician did me no good. Having read in the religious weeklies of the wonderful cures of your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and being advised to use it by Captain Graham, I did so, and am once more able to walk the streets. My pains have left me, and I believe if I had used the remedy a year ago, I should then also be
